

Visiting Distinguished Lectureship

“Population Health and the Latino Epidemiological Paradox”

March 16, 2017

Noon - 1 p.m.

Lunch Provided

Arkansas Children’s Hospital, Main Hospital,
Third Floor, Betty Lowe Classroom

“Latino Leadership and the Cinco de Mayo in the American West”

March 16, 2017

6 - 7 p.m.

Reception to follow

Clinton School of Public Service, Sturgis Hall

“Race-Ethnic Categories and Biomedical Research: 21st Century Challenges”

March 17, 2017

Noon - 1 p.m.

Lunch Provided

UAMS College of Public Health Building,
G-225

UAMS

David E. Hayes-Bautista, Ph.D.

Distinguished Professor of Medicine

Director, Center for the Study of Latino Health & Culture

David Geffen School of Medicine, UCLA

UAMS co-sponsors: Center for Diversity Affairs, Translational Research Institute, College of Pharmacy and Arkansas Center for Health Disparities in the Fay W. Boozman College of Public Health. With special thanks to the Clinton School of Public Service, League of United Latin American Citizens, and the University of Arkansas at Little Rock Joel E. Anderson Institute on Race and Ethnicity.