

Learn how to cite the CTSA grant at TRI.uams.edu/cite

If you benefit from any of TRI's resources or programs, please remember to cite our CTSA award.

Examples of TRI-attributable support:

- Direct funding (or any portion of) for any project or scholar program
- Use of TRI eHealth data services, including Arkansas Clinical Data Repository, i2b2, Honest Broker System, LifeLink™ database
- Support for informatics, data collection, research design, biostats, community engagement, etc
- Any guidance, mentorship, project/protocol development, or administrative support provided by any TRI faculty or staff member

There is no penalty for citing the TRI in your work. It protects the resources we develop and extend to you.

Learn how to cite the CTSA grant at TRI.uams.edu/cite

Recommended Language for Citation:

“The project described was supported by the Translational Research Institute (TRI), grant [insert appropriate award number(s)] through the National Center for Advancing Translational Sciences of the National Institutes of Health (NIH). The content is solely the responsibility of the authors and does not necessarily represent the official views of the NIH.”

Cite All Awards Under Which You Were Supported

Current Award: UL1 TR003107 (General Support or Funding)
 KL2 TR003108 (KL2 Scholar Awardees)
 TL1 TR003109 (TL1 Scholar Awardees)

Visit TRI.uams.edu/cite for a full list of current and past award numbers. If you have questions about which grant award to cite, please contact Laura Wilson, TRI Director of Business Operations.

ConTRIBUTE

Cite Together, Succeed Together

Learn how to cite the CTSA grant at TRI.uams.edu/cite

Share your research updates with us here: <https://tri.uams.edu/cite-tri-report/>

We want to promote our research partners throughout our CTSA network and all across our community.

@TRI_UAMS

@uamstri