

KL2 Career Development Award Opportunity

Information Sessions Begin Sept. 23

All UAMS-affiliated early-career researchers (and their mentors) are invited to three information sessions about the KL2 Career Development Scholars Program offered through TRI in preparation for the 2022 Request for Applications (to be released in November).

Come hear the details about this exciting and prestigious career development opportunity and learn how to prepare your most effective KL2 application.

SESSION 1: Thursday, Sept. 23, 4:30 – 5:30 p.m. (general information - who the program is designed for and benefits of being a KL2 Scholar)

SESSION 2: Thursday, Oct. 14, 4:30 – 5:30 p.m. (how to form a good mentoring team and expectations from mentors)

SESSION 3: Thursday, Nov. 18, 4:30 – 5:30 p.m. (developing an impactful career development plan and research proposal)

Attendance is greatly encouraged but not required to apply.

KL2 awards are funded by NIH/NCATS and provide two years of didactic and mentored translational research training and include 75% salary support and $25,000 each year for research, education and travel.
