

ATTENTION Early-Career Researchers

K12 Informational Session - Oct. 15 or Oct. 28

K12 Mentored
Research Career
Development
Award Program

K12 Program leaders John Arthur, M.D., Ph.D., Jason Farrar, M.D., and Mario Schootman, Ph.D., will provide an overview and answer your questions about this prestigious program at the Translational Research Institute.

Join us Oct. 15 from 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., or
Oct. 28 from 4:30 - 5:30 p.m., via Zoom

REGISTER HERE

to receive the Zoom link or scan the QR code to register

K12 awards provide two years of salary support and 75% protected time to awardees for an intensive research career development experience under the guidance of a mentorship team with expertise in clinical and translational science. Eligible applicants should be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and not yet promoted to associate professor by April of 2025.

Letters of Application are due Dec. 16, 2024 @ 5 p.m.

Learn more at the TRI website.

Contact: Nik Berardi, ndberardi@uams.edu

UAMS

Translational
Research Institute

The K12 program is funded by the National Center for Advancing Translational Sciences of the National Institutes of Health award number K12TR004924.